

ANNUAL SAFETY ALLIANCE CONFERENCE

Tuesday, Sept. 10, 2024 • 7:30 AM – 1 PM • Aqua Turf Club

THE BUSINESS OF SAFETY

Employer attention and investment in worker health and well-being initiatives has proven to pay off by improved productivity, reduced healthcare costs, enhanced employee retention, better safety outcomes, and positive reputation and brand image.

This year's Conn-OSHA, OSHA, CCIA Safety Alliance Conference, The Business of Safety, continues our focus on the mental health and well-being theme – a message that will appeal to and interest not only corporate safety and health professionals, but also senior corporate executives. So, we extend a special invitation to our member companies' senior executives to attend this year's conference and gain insights on worker health and well-being programs in construction.
