THE INDEPENDENCE FUND

IN SUPPORT OF OPERATION RESILIENCY

Operation Resiliency, part of the Independence Fund, reunites post-9/11 military units who survived traumatic experiences together during their deployment and have been affected by Veteran suicide once home.

Relying on the trust and brotherhood forged in combat, military units gather to address their next, and most important mission on the home front: Preventing Veteran suicide. Together, Veterans engage in peer-to-peer support, physical activity, and social connectedness to build resiliency skills.

82nd Airborne BRAVO Company, one of the hardest hit units in Afghanistan. BRAVO Company was the first unit to be reunited under Operation Resiliency. Our goal is to raise $100,000 to pay for the second BRAVO Company reunion that is scheduled for this June.
