

PRESENTED BY:

March 6th, 2024

DoubleTree by Hilton, Bristol, CT

Welcome Dinner March 5th

Total Worker Health® Seminar

Health, safety, wellbeing, mental health, substance misuse, stress – the list goes on. With so many aspects of “health,” how and where can companies start to tackle them all to take care of workers beyond compliance? Total Worker Health® (TWH) is a holistic approach to worker wellbeing created by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) that is, very importantly, approachable for companies.

Speakers :

Dr. Jenn Cavallari

Associate Professor, UConn Health

Dr. L Casey Chosewood

Director, Office for Total Worker Health, NIOSH

Dr. Ann Marie Dale

Professor of Medicine and Occupational Therapy, Washington University in St. Louis

Joshua Ierna

Safety Manager, Tilcon Connecticut

Chris May

SVP, Safety, Health and Environment, CRH

Dr. Carol Nixon

Research Health Scientist, NIOSH

Chris Williamson

Assistant Secretary, MSHA

Jeff Erskine

Deputy, RA –OSHA, Region 1

Total Worker Health®

What is it?

Why is it Valuable?

What topics does it cover?

What could a program look like?

What are the first steps?

Registration Required:

ctconstruction.org/TWH

No Cost to Attend

Breakfast and Lunch Provided