Michael McPhee

Stephen Sandherr is Chief Executive Officer for AGC of America where he maintains relations with AGC's 90 chapters nationwide, coordinates government relations activities and enhances AGC's involvement with business coalitions. A Capitol Hill newspaper, The Hill, listed Steve as a top lobbyist for the last ten years, representing the only commercial construction industry association on the Top Lobbyists of 2009 to 2019 lists.

Bob Lanham is a life member of AGC of America's Board of Governors and served for 10 years on the Board of Directors (formerly Executive Board). In 2006, he became chairman of both AGC of America's Highway and Transportation Division and The Road Information Program (TRIP), and he continues to serve on the latter's Executive Committee. Bob also served two terms as the President of the AGC of Texas in 2000 and 2011.
